

22: 55 FAX

FREEHOLD BOROUGH HUMAN RELATIONS ADVISORY COMMITTEE MEETING MINUTES

December 3, 2019

6:00 pm - 7:00 pm

Attendees:

Gianna Dell'Omo

Jane Fields

Annette Jordan

Christine Gregory

Sgt. Edward Santana

Paul Jensen

Claire Morales

Agenda Item 1. Holiday Candlelight Walking Tour

Annette and Gianna met with Paul-Mark printers to present information to create tour guide pamphlets. Front page of the pamphlets feature the flyer, followed by a welcoming introduction. The parish historic bios for all of the participants are also included, with the historic map of West Main Street and tour route featured on the back, Tour route was discussed with Sergeant Santana who will be directing participants in street crossings along the route. Borough historian Kevin Coyne and Mayor Nolan Higgins will accompany the tourists on the walk providing historic insight to the commercial and residential buildings along West Main Street. ,

Gianna contacted pastoral associate of St. Rose with regard to refreshments at the end of the tour. Guests will be convening at the St. Parish Center on Throckmorton Street for hot beverages and baked goods. I-IRC members to provide battery operated candles and baked goods.

Gianna will seek permission from Downtown Partnership, to allow HRC members to distribute flyers during the tree lighting service, and provide flyers to Main Street restaurants at downtown events to further promote the tour.

Agenda Item 2. Ideas/Suggestions/Comments for 2020

Members were asked to present ideas and suggestions for HRC activities and engagements for the coming year.

Annette suggested reaching out to Red Bank's I-IRC to integrate some of its ideas into our activities. Sergeant Santana noted Red Bank's Police/Community forum event and suggested I-

IRC consider in the new year. Gianna suggested we attend one of Red Bank's meetings to learn how its Committee attends to issues relative to the Borough.

Next Meeting January 7, 2020